

Monica Taverniti

Designer and maker, Turin based, she is formed as an architect but prefers drawing by hand. In her project, started in 2019, she mixes visual and formal influences from cinema and the comic book world. Her sculpture - furniture evoke pop memories, maquettes of architectures that do not exist yet but prompt the viewer to rethink question of functionality.